DOVETAIL ANIMALS Karl Zahn

Material: Beech Wood

Dimensions: 5.5 x 4 x 1.5" each

There's a beginning, middle and end to each Dovetail Animal or—head, torso, and tail. Three beautifully smooth wooden shapes, whose dovetail joints converge to form an animal. Available in five styles; dog, llama, elephant, horse and crocodile. Sold individually.

CUBEBOT David Weeks

Material: Cherry wood

Dimensions: 2.5 x 2.5" cube

Robot toys are usually made of plastic and require batteries - but not this one! Inspired by the Japanese Shinto Kumi-ki puzzles, the Cubebot is a non-traditional take on the toy robot by joining ancient Japanese traditions with contemporary toy culture.

Recommended for ages 3+.

CROC PILE Karl Zahn
Material: Beech Wood
Dimensions: 4.75 x 2.25 x 1" each
Pile on the crocs, pile on the fun. This set of five wooden crocs balances playfully in countless combinations.

ANIMAL BOXES Karl Zahn
Material: Beech Wood
Dimensions: 8 x 3.5 x 2.25"
These figural boxes represent "power" animals - totems for our individual ambitions. The simple and gestural depiction is intentional - allowing the symbolism of the animal to be maintained. With the addition of hinges, they have the ability to guard important small objects. On the shelf, they are sculpture. On the side table, totems. On the counter, they offer a hiding spot.

WOODEN ANIMALS David Weeks Studio

Material: Beech Wood

The animals' hardwood frames can hold many poses, and their elastic-band muscles and durable wood limbs make them almost impervious to breakage. An enduring classic that will withstand generations of play.
